Principal Park, Des Moines

Thank you for shopping in the Danish Windmill's museum store. The proceeds from your purchases support the programs and exhibits of the historic 1848 Danish Windmill museum which is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

The products in this store have been carefully selected to enhance your visit. The museum store is an extension of the institution, dedicated to educating, enlightening and inspiring. Our web site is open 24/7 and features over 1,700 products with photos. During the day hours you can visit over the phone with one of our knowledgeable staff to help you with your questions.

From all of us at the Danish Windmill we thank you for your patronage this past year and look forward to seeing and hearing from you in the New Year!

2022 Product Availability and Potential Supply Chain Delays—Since many of our products are imported from Denmark, they are vulnerable to supply chain interruptions or disruptions and higher costs for the importers and exporters. As a result, product availability and pricing is subject to change. We value your business and appreciate your patience in this matter.

Take a vacation with a Danish accent!

"To travel is to live."—Hans Christian Andersen

Make 2023 the year that you visit Elk Horn! You'll have plenty of stories to tell your friends back home if you take Hans' advice and visit the Danish villages of Elk Horn and Kimballton, Iowa. The Danish Windmill is an official Iowa Welcome Center so our travel counselors are ready to help you plan your stay.

Tivoli Fest and JuleFest

Elk Horn's Danish celebration, Tivoli Fest, is held each Memorial Day weekend. Enjoy Danish foods and specialties such as smørrebrød, æbleskiver and medisterpølse. There is the Tour de Tivoli bike race and Mermaid to Mill 5K Run, a parade, Danish folk dancers, an entertainment stage and fireworks.

Julefest is held annually over Thanksgiving weekend. This is a fun-filled Christmas festival with the Naughty or Nisse 5K Run, over 25 local businesses, organizations, historical sites and museums. Visit the unique gift shops, large Christmas Boutique and more!
