2022 ROYAL COPENHAGEN COLLECTIBLES

Royal Copenhagen Collectibles is a tradition loved by many. Every year, a new motif tells a tale of Danish cultural heritage, and the blue collectibles along with the loveable Santa and Christmas tree figurines have adorned homes for generations. Created in 1908.

Royal Copenhagen Christmas Plate 2022 - Frederiksborg Castle

It's Christmas Eve at Frederiksborg Castle, and on the snow-covered cobblestones, the glow of the streetlamps captures the twinkling eyes of the two castle cats. The Royal Copenhagen Annual Christmas Plate has been made by hand and issued annually since 1908. Once again this year, the annual Christmas plate is accompanied by a figurine.

BING & GRØNDAHL

THE WORLD'S FIRST CHRISTMAS PLATE

The idea of Christmas plate originated with Harald Bing, owner of Bing & Grøndahl, who hired Swedish artist Frans August Hallin to create the motif. Hallin's technique of cutting the motif for the plate in relief created a very detailed expression. The world's first Christmas plate debuted in 1895 and its motif was the Copenhagen skyline.
